

Four Moods for the Four Seasons

Easter Mood

Rudolf Steiner (trad. William and Liselotte Mann)

canon

Stephan Ronner

1.
When from the world's wide realms the sun speaks to the hu - man mind, and joy from depths soul u - nites with light in gaz - ing then thoughts self-hood's stream in - to far spread Spaces and dim - ly bind Man's being to the Spirit - it's life.

2.
3.

St. John's Mood

Rudolf Steiner (trad. William and Liselotte Mann)

canon

Stephan Ronner

1.
The world's fair - ing glo - ry com - pels me from the depths of soul to my be - ing God - giv - en pow - ers soar out in - to the U - ni - verse by giving my self, and trust - ing on - ly seek my - self in light of worlds and warmth of worlds, of worlds.

2.
3.

Michaelmas Mood

Rudolf Steiner (trad. William and Lieselotte Mann)

canon

Stephan Ronner

1. Na - ture! Your soul of mo - ther - hood I bear with - in the be - ing of my will; and this will's fie - - ry might steels my Spi - rit's im - pul - ses, that self - a - ware - ness they be - get, to bear my S - self, me, to my Self in me.

2. 3./4.

Christmas Mood

Rudolf Steiner (trad. Lieselotte Mann)

canon

Stephan Ronner

1. I feel as from en - clant - ment freed the Spir - it - child in womb of soul; the Ho - ly Word of Word has in hearts bright ra - di - ance the
3. 3. 4. hea - ven - ly hope be - got - ten which grow - eth ju - bi - lant to far - thest worlds, out of my be - ing's ground, ground, ground in God, ground in God.